

Nino Psuturi; LEPL Gori public school N8; Gori; Georgia

“Plant an Emotion”

Seventh and ninth graders collaborated on the "Plant an Emotion" project. Ninth graders, from the startup "Herba," create plantable paper holiday cards with embedded flower seeds. Seventh graders, exploring life cycles, joined the project to observe seed growth. Together, they conducted experiments, raising questions about optimal conditions to grow a plant.

Project outcome: a board game, "Inquiring with Sheldon," making learning enjoyable and informative.