

Kateřina Lipertov | Crkevn gymnzium | Plze | Czech Republic

Light Painting

Light painting is a photographic technique where long exposure times are used to capture the movement of a light source within a dark environment. It's both physics and art. Various light sources, such as flashlights, LED lights, glow sticks, or sparklers can be used. The creative possibilities are limitless. Would you prefer light writing, orb light painting, spirographs, swirling patterns, intricate designs, or glowing shapes?

